

Want your buyers to worry less?

Set up effective child labour prevention and remediation systems and have your buyers worry less

Spotting child labour risks is not intuition – it's training. Equip yourself with the tools to reduce child labour risks, strengthen management systems and meet both regulatory and buyer expectations.

The Centre's
Learning Lab

Scan to register

May 19 & July 21,
2026
14:00–17:00 CST

For those in Mainland China: Register here

Target audience

For suppliers: English-speaking factory, farm, and supplier management teams across global supply chains

Programme details

Duration
3 hours

Language
English

- The basics: Definitions of child labour, risks and why this matters
- Prevention where risks arise
- Remediation: Responding to child labour
- Effective communication and collaboration with brands and buyers
- Action planning

Pricing

USD 130/person*

*Members of The Centre's CRIB Working Group are eligible for a discount. Please contact info@childrights-business.org to receive your code.

Each Learning Lab session is limited to a maximum of 30 participants, with spaces allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. Once registered, participation is confirmed and fees are non-refundable. In the event a session is rescheduled by The Centre, registered participants will be offered an alternative date.